With CallSafe, you never have to worry about your loved ones safety and well being when you can't be around to look after them. CallSafe is an affordable monitoring service that provides caregivers the freedom, convenience, and peace of mind to be away from their dependent loved one by knowing that a kind, friendly, and experienced SafeGuard personal response specialist will call your loved one as often as you choose to ensure everything is comfortable and safe, or to provide assistance if necessary.

The CallSafe monitoring service offers a variety of flexible options to choose from. Subscribers can decide how many times they want their loved one to be called each day. They can also decide the best time of day to have their loved one called according to daily schedules and personal needs.
